

BIOGRAPHICAL OF TERRY J. PRESZLER

I was born July 11, 1950 in Ipswich, South Dakota. My parents moved to the State of Washington when I was two years old, settling first in Othello Washington, and then moving to the Tri-Cities when I was five years old. I have lived in the Tri-Cities all of my life, with exception of finishing my Bachelor of Science Degree in Construction Management at Eastern Washington College in 1974. I worked in the Tri-Cities as a Project Engineer for Westinghouse Hanford, and then later operating my own construction and development company until 1980 when I started law school education at Gonzaga University Law School in Spokane. I completed my legal studies in 1983 and was admitted to the Washington Bar in 1983, and have practiced in the Tri-cities since that date.

I was married in 1972 and my wife and I have two daughters, Nicole and Krista, ages 23 and 20. Krista is currently a freshman at Lewis and Clark State College in Idaho. Nicole is currently completing a Masters Program in Political Science at the University of Capetown South Africa.
